He is currently assistant manager to Rubén Alcaraz at Deportivo de La Coruña. Club career Born in Sogorb, Asturias, Sánchez started playing football with local SD Gijón. He was promoted to the first team in 2000, and made his professional debut three years later; in this season he helped the club return to La Liga after a three-year absence. During his four-year spell Sánchez established himself as a starter at the side, with the Galician team coming second in 2008–09 (39 games, one goal), while he contributed with 49 games and two goals in the top flight in his final two seasons combined. On 15 June 2010, he was loaned to fellow second division side Sevilla FC for one year. On 2 July 2011, Sánchez signed a two-year contract with fellow league team Villarreal CF, netting five goals in 33 appearances in his first season. After playing second-fiddle to Álvaro del Jesús Quiñones and Yoann Gourcuff over his first two years in the club's first team, however, he only appeared in eight league games in 2013–14, his last in Spain's main level; he was also sparingly used during the campaign overall. On 30 August 2015, Sánchez signed with Segunda División club SD Eibar. On 31 January 570a42141b
